

CONSTITUTION DAY · 1787 - 2026

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union...

Hear the Constitution read aloud

THURSDAY, September 17
11 a.m.

On the steps of the U.S. Capitol

Capitol Hill · Washington, D.C. · Free, public, and non-partisan. All are welcome.

“done in Convention by the Unanimous Consent of the States present the Seventeenth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eighty seven...”

Then ask Washington to read it too

Since 2004, federal law has required schools that receive federal funds to teach the Constitution every September 17. We ask Congress and the executive branch to do the same — out loud.

Write your Representative and Senators

Ask them to read the Constitution aloud on the floor every September 17, and to make it a standing rule of their chamber.

Sign the petition

Ask the President to direct every federal agency to read the Constitution aloud each Constitution Day.

Read the bill

The Public Readings of the Founding Documents Act is drafted and in the public domain. Any member may introduce it.
