

CONSTITUTION WEEK • 1787 - 2027

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union...

Read the Constitution Aloud

ON

September 17–23

Constitution Week

On the Capitol East Steps
Washington, D.C.

“done in Convention by the Unanimous Consent of the States present the Seventeenth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eighty seven...”

Free, public, and non-partisan. All are welcome.

declareindependence.net/constitution-week

Three ways to keep it being read

Federal law has set September 17–23 apart as Constitution Week since 1956, and has required federally funded schools to teach the Constitution every September 17 since 2004. Nobody is asked to read it out loud.

1 Let Congress read it on the House and Senate floor.

Ask your Representative and Senators to read the Constitution aloud during Constitution Week, and to make it a standing rule of their chamber. Capitol switchboard: (202) 224-3121

2 Sign the petition for an executive action.

Making a reading the duty of every federal department, bureau, office and agency — starting in the Oval Office.

change.org/readconstitutionaloud

3 Introduce and support the bill.

The Public Readings of the Founding Documents Act, and its companion the Commemorative Days Observance Act. Both are drafted, in the public domain, and free for any member to introduce.

github.com/jaredscribe/public-readings-of-the-founding-documents-act

declareindependence.net/constitution-week

Declareindependence.net is a non-partisan educational and civic action resource committed to historic commemoration with honesty, accuracy, and equity.